Dear Ms. Stokes:

It is with great pleasure that I offer you my congratulations on being named the Small Business Person of the Year by the U.S. Small Business Administration's North Florida District Office.

I salute you for your hard work as president and principal of Southeastern Archeological Research, Inc. You are to be commended for your efforts in providing quality services to your clients in the fields of archaeology, architectural history, and maritime archaeology.

Please accept my best wishes for your continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

Mel Martinez
United States Senator
